

PUT YOURSELF AND YOUR BUSINESS ON THE ACQUISITIONS RADAR

You can be running your business very well and maintaining your metrics and books and records dutifully, and you're well credentialed, but if nobody knows you would be interested in potentially purchasing a practice, what good is it?

Therefore, take a few minutes and let us know that you'd potentially be interested in an acquisition if the deal was right. And the way you do that is you hop onto the FRGIS website, and go into the Advisor Development pages and fill out your profile.
