

Take Charge of Your Financial Future

Please join us for an informative event.

Today, more women than ever are responsible for their financial well-being, and the well-being of their families. But women often face unique financial challenges. That's why it's so important that no matter what life stage they're in, women know how to save, invest, and plan for their future.

In this seminar on Women and Money, you'll learn:

- The unique financial challenges women face, such as longer life expectancies and more career breaks for caregiving, and how they impact long-term financial security
- Six steps women can take to help them achieve financial security, including taking control of their money, becoming more knowledgeable investors, advocating for them selves in the workplace, planning for retirement, protecting their income and assets, and creating an estate plan

You'll also receive a free workbook created just for this presentation. The workbook contains key information, worksheets, and questions to help you remember important points from the seminar.
